Absent 2, Elaine Pietrzak	Absent 5
Absent 3,	Absent 6

The regular meeting of the Department of Parks and Recreation for the Town of St. John, Indiana was held on August 25, 1975, with two members in attendance.

Mr. Spring read a letter he received from Mrs. Pietrzak resigning from the Park Board as of August 1, 1975. Mr. Spring said he would contact Mrs. Pietrzak to thank her for all the help she has given to the Board.

Mrs. Durochik was at the meeting and gave her finalized report on the Summer Program.

Mrs. Durochik's salary was again brought up, and the matter had to be tabled because of lack of a quorum.

Mr. Spring reported that one of the two picnic tables arrived and the Jaycees have given us a check for the tables.

Mr. Spring reported than sand will be acquired to fix the baseball diamond. The ditch at Larimer Park has been straightened out, and there is now limited parking available in front of the Park.

At our last meeting, Bill Glenn from the Lake County Department of Parks and Recreation mentioned something about playing volleyball with other towns. Mrs. Durochik is going to look into getting Kolling School. It would be for adults eighteen (18) and over, and each team would consist of eleven (11) people.

Respectfully submitted,
